1. Heard both sides. Perused the R & P. This is an application for grant of bail pending disposal of the appeal. Admittedly, the applicant who has been sentenced for maximum sentence of 7 years R.I. for an offence punishable under Section 304 of IPC has been in jail for about 2 & 1/2 years. He was on bail during the trial. There is no allegation of abusing of bail. The appeal has been admitted on merits. The trial

Court has observed that there is some exaggeration in the evidence of the girl's parents. The girl committed suicide which was not denied by the defence.

2. Taking into fact that the applicant is already in jail for about 2 & 1/2 years, I am inclined to grant bail. In the circumstances, it is directed that pending the hearing and final disposal of the appeal, the applicant may be released on bail in the sum of Rs.25,000/- with one surety in the like amount subject to the condition that he will report to the jail road police station, Solapur, once a week on every Monday until further order. Liberty to apply for variation after six months.
